Pre-Arrival Information for International Students

An international student is anyone in the U.S. on a non-immigrant temporary visa, such as F-1, J-1, H-4, E-2, TN, etc. U.S. permanent residents, refugees, and asylees are not considered "international" for ISSS reporting purposes.

International students must arrive on-campus in time to attend the mandatory orientation program.

- International students who hold F-1 or J-1 visas may enter the U.S. as early as 30 days prior to the program start date indicated on their I-20 (F-1 students) or DS-2019 (J-1 students).

Click on your student group below to access additional arrival information.

As you go through your program here, you will face many new and exciting challenges. You will find that there are cultural differences to learn and adjust to, and we hope that these online resources will be useful to you as you continue to adapt to life in the U.S.

There are also immigration regulations that you are expected to abide by but can be very confusing. We are here to help you. Resources on F-1 status and J-1 status regulations are available here on our website, but you can also stop by our office to speak with one of the advisors for clarification and additional questions. If you are a student on a status other than F-1 or J-1 and have questions regarding your status, please contact an advisor.

Below the navigation bar, there are tabs for "Student" and "CU Resources". Drop Advising Required Hold

As of Sept 12, there will be a “Drop Advising Required” Hold on your account that prevents you from dropping courses without ISSS permission.

This is to help prevent your accidentally dropping below full-time enrollment.

This will NOT prevent you from:

- ▶ Adding a class
- ▶ Ordering a transcript
- ▶ Registering for the next semester

If you need to drop a class, email sponsoredadvising@colorado.edu

GET ISSS & SPONSOR APPROVAL BEFORE DROPPING CLASSES BELOW FULL TIME!

- Seek Help: instructor, tutor, help room, academic advisor, academic coach
- Reduced Course Load options:
- F1 immigration regulations permit a Reduced Course Load (RCL) if
 - Medical reasons, with medical documentation (physical or mental health) .
 - Academic reasons – one time only, with documentation (Unfamiliarity with U.S. teaching methods, English proficiency, difficulty with reading, improper course level)
 - Final Semester

YOU SHOULD ALWAYS ASK YOUR SPONSOR & ISSS FIRST, BEFORE...

- ▶ Changing your major- we will contact you for new proof of funding if you do change your major.
- ▶ Adding a second major or a minor
- ▶ Dropping a class
- ▶ Registering for online, remote, or hybrid courses
- ▶ Registering for Continuing Education courses
- ▶ Applying for work/internships
- ▶ Applying for an education abroad program
- ▶ Registering at another university or community college

When in doubt, ASK!

DO NOT ASK YOUR FRIENDS; ASK YOUR SPONSOR.

Waive CU Health Insurance by September 15!

- Since your sponsor provides your health insurance: waive CU Health Insurance through your Buff Portal – Billing Information tab – Other Billing Services – “Select or Waive Health Plans.” Your Sponsor cannot waive it for you!
- If you do not waive CU Health Insurance, you will automatically be enrolled in CU Gold SHIP Plan Health Insurance and you will have to pay the $2420. per semester fee yourself.
- You must waive the University health insurance policy your first semester in the U.S. and again every Fall semester.
- Even with insurance, expect to pay a copay when seeking care.

Can I use CU Medical Services on my sponsor-provided medical insurance?

▶ Yes, maybe.

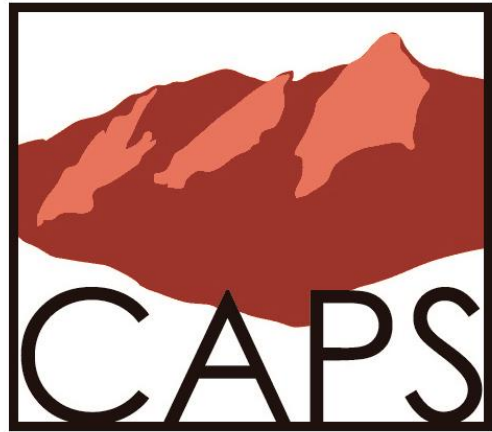

▶ Health Services bills all U.S.-based insurance companies directly. You may have to pay a co-pay or deductible. CU Health Services may not be an in-network provider.

OR

▶ You may purchase the BuffCare plan on top of your sponsor-provided insurance for $270. BuffCare covers out-of-pocket expenses for on-campus care including co-pays, co-insurance and deductible costs.

If you do not wish to use or cannot use Medical Services at Wardenburg, be sure to find a primary care provider (doctor) in the area that you can visit when you're sick or have an injury. NOW is the time to look.

- ▶ More information can be found at this link:

- ▶ A registration hold may be placed on your account if not completed in a timely manner.

Complete the Community Equity Training in Canvas

The Community Equity Training in Canvas is required for all students.

- Note: If you do not complete this training, there will be a hold on your account that will prevent class registration for the Spring 2024 semester and have possible consequences for your immigration status.
- If you have additional questions about this training, please contact oiectraining@colorado.edu

CU Book Access Program Fee

- ▶ For Fall 2024, all undergraduate students will be automatically opted into the new CU Book Access program. Your sponsor does not pay this charge, as they provide you funds for books. You must pay it by September 10 to avoid late fees.
- ▶ This gives all students access to their required textbooks and course packs for one low cost.
- ▶ For example; a Physics/Engineering student may have to purchase a $500 textbook for a Thermodynamics course; however, this plan allows them to pay just $293.33 per semester for all their books instead of paying for each individual textbook.
- Note: CU Book Access costs a flat rate of $269 plus tax (total of $293.33) and includes access to all required digital and print materials.

Opting out of the CU Book Access Program

- ▶ Students can opt out of CU Book Access by September 11, 2024 (the university's fall course drop deadline). We strongly recommend that students review their course material costs/needs before deciding to opt-out. For more information, please click here.
- ▶ To opt out of CU Book Access or choose the Select Access program, use the link provided in the email you received at the start of the term or in the “My Course Materials” tab in Canvas.
- ▶ Please note: if you choose to opt out of courseware, you may lose access to submit your homework via your class's Canvas page, as an active subscription is required to submit homework via courseware.
- ▶ If you opt out on September 11, late/finance will still be applied to your account. In that case, email 3rdparty@colorado.edu to request the late/finance charges be removed.

Make sure Third-Party Billing Office has a current, valid Financial Guarantee from your Sponsor

- ▶ Fall 2024 Tuition and Financial Guarantees due September 10, 2024. If late, you will be charged late fees and finance charges.
- ▶ Check with your sponsor or 3rdparty@colorado.edu to confirm your sponsor provided a Financial Guarantee.
- ▶ You are responsible to ensure the Bursar always has a valid Financial Guarantee. Forward it to 3rdparty@Colorado.edu and sponsoredadvising@Colorado.edu.
- ▶ Check your account in Buff Portal frequently (before 5th of each month) for unpaid fees. Optional fees are not paid by sponsors.
 - ▶ Financial holds prevent transcripts from being sent to sponsor & prevent you from registering for classes.
